Exemption Request – Distance Education

An institution may not operate in North Dakota without either an authorization issued by the State Board for Career and Technical Education, or an exemption granted by the Board.

Institutions providing distance education services to North Dakotans may qualify for an exemption if: (check all that apply)

- the institution does not have a physical presence in the state and the institution is not contracting with others to provide educational services from a physical location within the state,
- the institution's only physical presence in the state consists of students enrolled in practicums, internships, clinicals or student teaching,
- the institution is publicly controlled: established, operated and governed by a state, or
- the institution's interest in the state is for advertising purposes only.
